PERSONAL:

Mr. Heyworth is a quietly confident person with a pleasant easy manner. He has settled down during the year and has become a very satisfactory student, conscientious and hard working. He is very reliable though seems at times to lack some imagination.

PROFESSIONAL:

His work is characterised by thorough and painstaking preparation at all times. Though still inclined to lecture too much, he is improving in his use of questioning and general techniques. His manner with pupils is friendly, but he is capable of firmness of control and should make a very sound teacher.
